A Metacognitive Conversation with Text

Directions: After reading text, reflect upon the process you engaged in to understand the meaning of the text.

- What did you do, as a reader, to make sense of the text you just read?
- Which parts were difficult to understand?
- What did you do when you got to the difficult parts?
- With what parts of the text are you still struggling?
- Share your strategies with others in your group.
- What ideas did you gain from others?
