6.4: Produce clear and coherent writing in which the development, organization, and style are appropriate to task, purpose, and audience.
6.5: With some guidance and support from peers and adults, develop and strengthen writing as needed by planning, revising, editing, rewriting, or trying a new approach, focusing on how well purpose and audience have been addressed.
6.6: Use technology, including the Internet, to produce and publish writing and present the relationships between information and ideas clearly and efficiently.

Grade 6
VAPA, Theatre, Aesthetic Valuing
4.2: Identify examples of how theatre, television, and film can influence or be influenced by politics and culture.

Lesson Idea:

Identify examples of how theatre, television, and film can influence or be influenced by politics and culture.

Students will write a composition identifying how television can influence or be influenced by politics and culture.

Students will use a writing workshop methodology (pre-writing, first draft, review/edit, final draft; publishing) to produce clear and coherent writing, with collaborative guidance and support from both peers and adults in order to develop and strengthen their writing.

Students will also use technology, including the internet, to produce and publish the writing on a class web page.
