

Grade 1: Establishing Purpose Video

00:00 [MRS. KAISER]

So, we are starting with social studies this morning boys and girls. We have been talking about the classroom rules. Can anybody tell from our circle map that we have been working on, what is one of our rules?

00:12 [ANGEL]

A classroom rule is to keep your hands to yourself and feet.

00:18 [MRS. KAISER]

Okay, good job, thank you Angel. So we're going to keep our hands and feet to ourselves. Excellent. Okay everyone, eyes on Mrs. Kaiser.

00:26 [MRS. KAISER]

So we're going to continue today talking about rules. But we're going to be talking about a different kind of a rule called a law. Okay, a law. So we're going to have a couple of objectives that we are going to be working on today.

So everybody repeat after me. We will understand...why communities...need laws. And we're going to talk a little bit more about laws when we start reading about it. Okay, and another objective, because we have two objectives today, is going to be - We will identify... who makes... the laws in our community.

And Brooklyn, can you tell me what identify means.

01:17 [BROOKLYN]

It means when you look and learn and listen.

01:23 [MRS. KAISER]

Very good. When you're looking, and you're finding something. Very good. You're going to identify something when we read. Awesome.

Okay, and we're going to talk about why we need rules. We already talked about classroom rules. I would like Partner A to raise your hand. Partner A, you are going to begin, and you are going to share with Partner B, "We need rules because..." - "We need rules because..." Everybody repeat that after me - "We need rules because..."

Okay, are you ready? Partner A is going to start. Ready? Go.

02:01 [STUDENT A]

We need rules because I want to be safe.

02:19 [MRS. KAISER]

Can somebody share me - "We need rules because..." One person - Isabella.

02:24 [ISABELLA]

We need rules so we can listen when you're talking.

02:28 [MRS. KAISER]

Awesome. We need rules so you can listen and learn in class right? Okay, let me have one more person share, Christian.

02:35 [CHRISTIAN]

We need rules because they are very important.

02:38 [MRS. KAISER]

Yes. Rules are very important. It helps us learn it helps us listen and it helps us stay safe in class. Okay?

Okay, hands down.
