

Teacher's Assessment
Boys Read: Considering Courage in Novels

	Always	Sometimes	Needs Improvement	Comment
Students followed the reading schedule
The pairs or groups remained on task during the discussion periods
All students contributed to the discussions
Students were respectful during the discussions
The groups discussed the main character's ability to show courage
Students completed the Graphic Maps appropriately
Students completed the Persuasion Map appropriately
Students wrote a persuasive essay of an appropriate length
Students completed all written assignments with correct spelling, grammar, and punctuation				